GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS DAUGHERTY TO RICHMOND COMMUNITY COLLEGE

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Nancy DeWitt Daugherty of Ellerbe to the Richmond Community College Board of Trustees.

Daugherty is a member of the Richmond Community College Board of Directors. She was named Entrepreneur of the Year by the George S. May International Company in 1996 and Citizen of the Year by the Richmond Community College Foundation in 2002. Daugherty received her Bachelor's degree in English from Queens College in New York.

Board duties are to elect the president, employ personnel, purchase land necessary for the operation of the college, apply standards for admission and graduation, receive gifts and donations, provide for the administration of all educational and occupational services and to establish or enter into public or private partnerships for the support of the institution. The board has 15 members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints four members. The local board of education appoints four members and the local county commissioners appoint six members. The student body president also serves on the board.
